

INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENTS:

WHAT CONSTITUTES USE OF UNFAIR MEANS IN EXAMINATION

- Attempt to know contents of Question paper prior to examination.
- Gaining access to question paper through any mean.
- Arguing with Invigilator/being rowdy.
- Possession / Use of external / written/ printed material inside the exam room.
- Possession / Use of Mobile phone, smart watch or unauthorized device containing external / cheating material inside the exam room.
- Exchange of Answer Book / Question Paper or any other cheating material.
- Attempt to cheat outside exam room, seeking help from other student inside / outside the exam room, abetment in cheating.
- Borrowing of calculator or any other device during examination.
- No ID card/Proof of being bonafide student of AU not held by student.
- Oral communication, whispering, looking around.
- Impersonation: Wherein a student is represented by someone else in the examination to attempt a paper/test etc.
- Suppressing or hiding any evidence of use of unfair means.
- Mass Cheating where more than one student is involved.
- Tempering of Results.