All Complaints/Grievances will be overseen by a Standing Committee consisting of Registrar, as Chair, and Senior Dean and Director Academics, as Members.

A Complaint/Grievance will be addressed by the concerned Chair Department/Dean when it is reported by the faculty or student petitioner(s) within ten days of the concerned event. In case the complaint is lodged by an employee against another employee both of whom are not posted in any academic department belonging to any of the faculties or the Institute of Avionics and Aeronautics, the office of prime concern will be the Deputy Registrar in place of the Chair Department and the Registrar in place of the Dean. The procedure followed by the Dean will be as follows:

- iii) Communicate the decision to all parties in the Complaint/Grievance as soon as a decision is taken.

Either party in the Complaint/Grievance may appeal to the Vice Chancellor against the decision of the Standing Committee. The decision of the Vice Chancellor will be considered final.

The University encourages informal resolution where possible. Formal procedures will be brought into effect when informal resolution has failed and the complaint/grievance has been reported within ten working days of the event being reported.

Only those matters will be dealt with that are beyond the scope of statutory bodies or those appointed by the University Functional Committee (UFC) for specific purposes, such as the Faculty Board of Graduate Studies, Discipline Committee, Unfair Means Committee, Harassment Monitoring Cell and AU Center for Counselling and Psychological Services etc.

Dealing with complaints / grievances is considered to be a centralized function at Air University and is being handled University wise by designated committees / bodies as per the nature and severity of issues / complaints / grievances of faculty / employees / students. The members of the committee conduct a detailed root cause analysis and based on the recorded evidence; make certain recommendations. A comprehensive report is prepared on the committee's proceedings and is routed to the office of Vice Chancellor for final decision. All the critical decisions attain the final status after VC's endorsement on them.

Air University Harassment Monitoring Cell

In order to facilitate an environment that is conducive to learning and is free from all types of harassment. AU has zero tolerance for any form of harassment that interferes with the work performance of a student or an employee. In order to prevent sexual and all other types of harassment on its campus AU has a policy, whose aim is to make the campus free from all sorts of harassment. This policy is being followed in letter and spirit and since 2011 AU has established a "Harassment Monitoring Cell". If anyone (be it a student or employee) in the AU community feels that they are being harassed, they can either approach their class advisor, department Chair/Dean or send an email to harassment.cell@mail.au.edu.pk All cases are handled and resolved in a professional manner so that the confidentiality of all parties is maintained.

Since March 2011 Air University has established a Harassment Monitoring Cell (HMC) in order to provide a safe and secure harassment free environment to all its students, faculty and staff. The HMC is run primarily by the Harassment monitoring officer

(HMO) who either receives the harassment related complaints directly or such complaints are forwarded to the HMO via chair departments or concerned faculty members of Air University. The HMO after receiving the complaint, depending on its nature coordinates with the Vice Chancellor, AU psychologist, Chair Department or any other AU employee who is in a position to resolve the complaint.

If a complaint is received by the HMC, the complaint can be resolved in an informal or a formal manner. When the complaint is resolved in an informal manner, no written evidence of the complaint is filed in order to maintain the confidentiality of both parties involved. However if the complaint cannot be resolved in an informal manner and the complainant is not satisfied with the informal resolution then the complaint is filed in a formal manner. In this case the complainant is submits a written complaint to the HMO. The complaint is then resolved formally where both parties appear in front of the hearing panel. The hearing panel after hearing out both the parties comes up with a decision that is also submitted to the HMC in writing. In case of a formal resolution of the complaint, a record of the complaint and the final decision is then retained by the HMC and is also placed in the personal files of both parties.

1. Copy of Notification and TORs: Copy of notification regarding present status of Harassment Monitoring Cell (HMC) as App 'C' of standard folder.
2. Name of dealing office / body for addressing grievances: Harassment Monitoring Cell for dealing with cases of harassment.

Center for Counseling and Psychological Services

Center of Counseling and Psychological Services, located on the ground floor, mini block, offers professional support to AU personnel (faculty members, students, and administrative staff). This center provides counselling and guidance to the individuals in dealing with their stressors as well as associated psychological distress, as stressful life and psychological distress adversely affects optimum functioning, motivational level, career goals and overall well-being. AU Psychologist, Dr. Shakira Huma Siddiqui, Flt Lt (R) is working in this center since 2007. All personal information is handled in the best professional manner and in complete confidentiality.

For bringing awareness about 'AU Center for Counseling and Psychological Services' among AU personnel (faculty members, administrative staff and students), multiple efforts have been made; e.g., AU personnel have been informed through AU Journal, AU website (AU news / AU students notice board), and AU info mobile services, that in case of facing unmanageable stress which is affecting their performance as well as previous normal functioning, appointment may be requested from AU Psychologist by sending email on psychologist@mail.au.edu.pk. Request for appointment may also be obtained by accessing 'AU Center for Counseling and Psychological Services' (on AU website) and filling the following 'counseling appointment form'.

Moreover, efforts have also been made to reach the AU personnel (faculty members, administrative staff and students) particularly students population, for inquiring about the stressors they are facing, the coping strategies they are using (whether effective or ineffective) and the level of distress they are experiencing. During this kind of surveys, AU personnel are also encouraged to mention, on a given performa if they need psychological consultation.

Findings of this sort of survey not only help in identifying individuals who need psychological help, but also provides direction in controlling the stressors in the external environment.

These findings are reported to the Director Students' Affairs & VC and effective measures are taken to control the stressors in the external environment, and to plan ways to develop effective stress management strategies. stress management workshops for the students, training workshops for the teachers and administrative staff have been planned/arranged under AU Center for Counselling and Psychological Services'.

Q.2 Is there any mechanism to safeguard the conflict of interests?

Mechanism to safeguard the conflict of interest

The 'conflict of interests' is quite a generalized term and may be employed for wide ranging situations and scenarios that might arise or end up in various types of conflicts including inter-departmental or inter-university or between university or any external entity.

At Air University, various mechanisms have been devised to deal with different types of conflicting situations (pertaining to conflict of interest) at different points in time and at different levels. In an effort to protect stakeholders' interests (internal stakeholders include administration/management, faculty, students and support staff), conflict of interests are addressed/tackled in following ways:

At University level

- Issuance of and adherence to uniform, university-wise applicable policies, rules and orders
- Office of Registrar ensures and regulates the smooth, conflict-free conduct of university business
- University Functional Committee (UFC) debates specific decision-oriented issues, Deans/HODs/Functional Heads use the platform to guard the interests of their respective areas/departments by putting up logical arguments, leading to the resolution of conflicts.
- Customized, need-based mechanisms are usually developed in order to address certain conflicting situations. For example, deployment of impartial & neutral designated bodies during annual sports week, including convener, referees, observers etc., in order to tackle numerous conflicting situations efficiently & effectively, arising all week through, and safeguarding the interests of all the five participating academic departments of the university.

At Department level

- Office of the Dean, through an open-door communication policy, addresses and resolves conflict of interest cases arising between faculty and staff. Where required, the Dean and/or affected party(s) may seek VC's guidance in arriving at the final decision of the dispute / conflict.
  - In case such disputed situation arises between / among the Dean and the FM(s) / staff (Dean being a party to the conflict), any of them may approach the Senior Dean or the office of Vice Chancellor.
1. SOPs for resolving conflicting issues: System documentation is still in progress at department level. Such SOPs are being reviewed / updated and would be soon available as guiding notes.
  2. List of cases received and resolved during last two years: Will be documented at university's centralized functions

3. Name of dealing office / body with conflict of interest situation: Office of Student Affairs, UFC forum, FBGS (Faculty Board of Graduate Studies), office of Registrar, office of Dean, office of Vice Chancellor, Customized teams
4. Review reports of the committees working on these situation: Will be maintained at university's centralized functions

Following are also assigned to safeguard the conflict of interest:-

- a. Integrity Ensurance Committee
- b. Additional Safeguards by Data Automation & HR Dept.

Integrity Ensurance Committee

The Integrity Ensurance Committee with the Senior Dean as Chair, and Director General IAA and one Senior Faculty Member appointed by the Vice Chancellor, as members, will ensure integrity by ensuring that there is no conflict of interests and that academic work is carried out and reported in a manner that complies with acceptable norms of institutions of higher education.

The committee will safeguard the interests of the University by probing into issues where there is a conflict of interests understood to be a matter generally concerning an employee of the University in a function that is not perceived to be clearly on the side of the University in any matter of academic, financial, or other matter in which the University has an interest.

The Committee will also monitor research/scholarly work to ensure that it is ethical as understood in universities worldwide.

Additional Safeguards

(i) Inbuilt Practices of Safeguarding Management Information System of AU

Air University (AU) recognizes that software is a major tool for all types of businesses including educational environment. Automation department is working with Air University since 2002 for the development of softwares for its all functional areas. AU Management Information System (MIS) comprising around 15 applications which are developed in-house. Certain steps have been taken to protect our investment and ensure copy right of Air University on Management Information System which are as under:

- MIS software is Air University proprietary and AU reserves its copy right
- MIS software source code is saved in various forms such as soft copies, CDs, DVDs and kept on various locations

- Only compiled form of softwares (unreadable) are used in campus and other affiliated institutes.
- Developers are not allowed to take source code/data with them or to copy on any device
- Different level of privileges and roles have been defined to access data/softwares and are strictly followed
- Roles are assigned to users for the modification and to view the data

ii. Human Resource Department

1. AU employment rules are attached at App 'D' to standard folder.

Q.3 Is there any system for monitoring ethical research / scholarly works?

Plagiarism Standing Committee

Air University provides an HEC-supported in house facility for checking plagiarism. The supervisor and the Guidance and Evaluation Committee (GEC) must ensure that references in proper format are provided when citing the work done by others. Plagiarism, if detected and proved, will lead to the immediate removal of the student from the program.

Following are the points to ensure ethical research practices/scholarly works at department levels:-

- Access of turn-it-in (anti-plagiarism software) made available to the graduate research coordinator, research supervisors and all faculty members.
- Attachment of similarity Index report (Plagiarism clearance certificate) along with the submission of the final thesis report has been made a mandatory requirement for the graduate students (MBA/MS). This has now been enforced for undergraduate students as well.
- In order to inculcate ethical research practices & attitude at both, undergraduate and graduate level, the respective research advisors and supervisors play their role continuously & consistently through coaching and counselling of the young scholars/researchers during all the stages of their research. They are able to do so systematically, as the researchers / students are supposed to submit their work to the research advisor chapter wise and within the given time-lines, for which they frequently need to see and seek advice of their assigned supervisors. In doing so, lots of grey areas in their research are addressed well in time.
- A strict evaluation is exercised both at the proposal and final defense stage by the supervising committee, which also measures the quality of research work. Ethical dimension is considered to be one of the integral dimensions of 'quality'.

- Another way of making academic contribution into 'ethics' at Department of Business Administration is devised through the curriculum design. Following academic courses are offered to students at different programs (BBA, MBA etc.) both at core as well as elective level, in an effort to inculcate the element of 'integrity' in their personal as well as professional profile:
    - * Self-Development
    - * Business Ethics
    - * Corporate Ethics
    - * Leadership & Motivational Skills
    - * Conflict Resolution & Management
1. Notification of implementation of HEC's Plagiarism Policy/Plagiarism Standing Committee is attached as App 'E' & 'E1' of standard folder.
  2. Evidence of external evaluation of Ph D theses form academically advanced Countries: Ph D students are not at that stage.
  3. Usage Report of turn it in anti-plagiarism for last years: Attached as App 'E2' of standard folder.

Q.4 Is there any system of peer evaluation / QA assessment at programme or institutional level?

Different systems are available for peer evaluation/QA assessment both at institutional and programme level. Focusing on programme level, following mechanisms are to be considered at current:-

- QEC lead Program assessment/reviews (based on visual inspection as well as documentation review)
- Review of Quality assessment reports-SARs (being compiled programme-wise by department quality team)
- Programme performance is also measured at Deptt levels,whereby on-line feedback is collected through HEC approved, standardized Performa / feedback forms on / from the following entities:-
  - * Teachers' Evaluation by students
  - * Course Evaluation by students
  - * Faculty Motivational Survey by FMs
  - * Survey of graduating students
  - * Alumni Survey
  - * Employer Survey
- A centralized ACR system is also in place

Self Assessment

QA assessment is done by AU QEC Office through following forms available at AU web site.

- i. Student Course Evaluation Questionnaire ; Proforma - 1
- ii. Faculty Course Review Report ; Proforma - 2
- iii. Survey of Graduate Students ; Proforma - 3
- iv. Research Student Progress Review Form ; Proforma - 4

FACULTY

1. The institution hires, retains, sustains and develop a faculty that is required to achieve its mission. A faculty qualification, numbers and quality oriented performance is sufficient to achieve the institution's mission and objectives. Faculty offers academic programs with competence and assumes related responsibilities.

FACULTY APPOINTMENTS AND HIRING PROCESS

2. Air University follows the appointment criteria for selection of faculty members defined by HEC and policy of Air University. The minimum qualification for Lecturer is a 16-years MS degree. Appointments are made based on selection by the University Selection Board. The HR office of University is responsible for advertising the faculty posts in two national leading newspapers for two consecutive weeks. The posts advertised are clearly mentioned along with the requirements. The Air University offers competitive salary package commensurate with experience and qualification of the candidate. The applications are received by HR as per advertised time frame which is generally two weeks after the advertisement. After initial scrutiny, HR forwards the applicant details to the concerning departments. The candidates first have to appear before the technical review board at the department. Once, it is established that the candidate holds strong technical background then applicant's credentials are forwarded to the Selection Board on the request of Department Chair. The Selection Board is comprised of Vice Chancellor, Deans of faculties, Chair Departments and Registrar. When selection Board gives approval of the candidate hiring then HR department validates the originality of the applicant's documents. On clearance from HR, the meeting would be fixed with the Registrar who settles the salary package with the applicant. Upon agreement, the University intimates the applicant to join the department as per joining date. On the first day of joining, the applicant is given appointment letter.

FACULTY EVALUATION AND DEVELOPMENT

3. Evaluation is done by Chair Departments with the support of the concerned Dean of Faculty. This is done by keeping an eye on class-room teaching, formal and informal consultations with Faculty Members and mentoring by senior FMs. In addition to this a system of evaluation of teachers have been developed through students feedback. The distribution and collection of evaluation forms is managed by the Quality Enhancement Cell. The data is transformed into graphical form and sent to Chair departments for corrective actions. This feedback is taken at the end of each semester.

Faculty teaching and training

4. Before the start of every semester, FM has to submit the course outline for each subject they are going to teach to the chair department office. The Chair department will ensure that the course outline forwarded by the FM is in line with the course planned by HEC experts. The FMs has the authority to include some new topics with a variation of 10-15 % as per the consent of the chair department. As far as the faculty training in writing a syllabus is concerned, PCEPT courses are regularly organized at university for faculty members which includes module of curriculum development .Senior FMs and the chair departments are always there for mentoring for their colleagues and help them to improve upon teaching and make improvements in their course. Following short courses were attended by faculty members to improve upon their skills.
